What are Our Biblical Heroes Like and How are We Similar to Them?

Hebrews 11

February 12, 2023

Sermon Sketch: The Hall of Faith (Heb. 11) lists many of our great heroes of the Faith, but they are not without their own flaws. We serve a great God who does extraordinary things through very ordinary people. A lot like you and I...

- 1) How has the spiritual battle gone for you this past week? (EM 1 – Who are We Fighting and How Do We Fight Them? 2/5/23) Have you been intentional to put on the whole armor of God every day? How has that made a difference for you?
- 2) Who are some of your favorite heroes of the Bible and why? Who are some of your favorite living “heroes” (i.e. who do you strongly admire)?
- 3) Lots of historians have chosen to tell a sanitized version of events so as to make their heroes look good. Why do you think God chose to record the stories of our Biblical heroes warts and all, and not edit out the flaws?
- 4) How able are you to objectively look at yourself in light of God’s Word – balancing the good and the bad? How might dialoguing with a trusted friend help you to see yourself better?
- 5) How many copies of “Your Real Identity in Christ” do you now have? Have you ever used that resources as a devotional tool, going through one or two statements per day in consecutive order? How might doing so change you self-understanding?
- 6) Realizing that the list of verses about God’s greatness (Genesis 18:14, Jeremiah 32:17, Jeremiah 32:27, Job 42:2, Matthew 19:26, Luke 1:37, Mark 10:27, Ephesians 3:20) is merely the tip of the proverbial ice berg, how is that we sometimes fail to trust God for great things in our life?
- 7) Are you in a place with your walk with God that you are able to let Him lead you into new things?
- 8) Do you agree with the premise that our extraordinary God chooses to work through very ordinary people to accomplish amazing (John 14:12-14) things?
- 9) How can you pray for yourself and our fellowship in a bold, faith filled way?
